Luigian

To Joe Carnelli from Fr. John, SJ.

LUIGIAN

Gonzaga
Preparatory School

Spokane, Washington

1966

There are many things that Gonzagans have in common, and the most noticeable and probably most important of these is SPIRIT. It can be seen in many places. Gonzagans show it in all the fields of competition, athletic and academic, and they show it in the stands. There is one more place where Gonzagans show their spirit, and it is in their sacrifice to come to Gonzaga. They come from all parts of the city and from varying backgrounds, and they are bound together by a spirited desire, a spirited desire to be men of Gonzaga.

A tan Chevy, a cigar billowing into the wind, a well-groomed black-haired priest vanishing down Euclid. Each day this is the scene. Who is he? Where is he going?

Gonzaga Prep's benefactors all know. His name is breathed with love from their hearts. He's part of their lives. He is a priest. He is Father John.

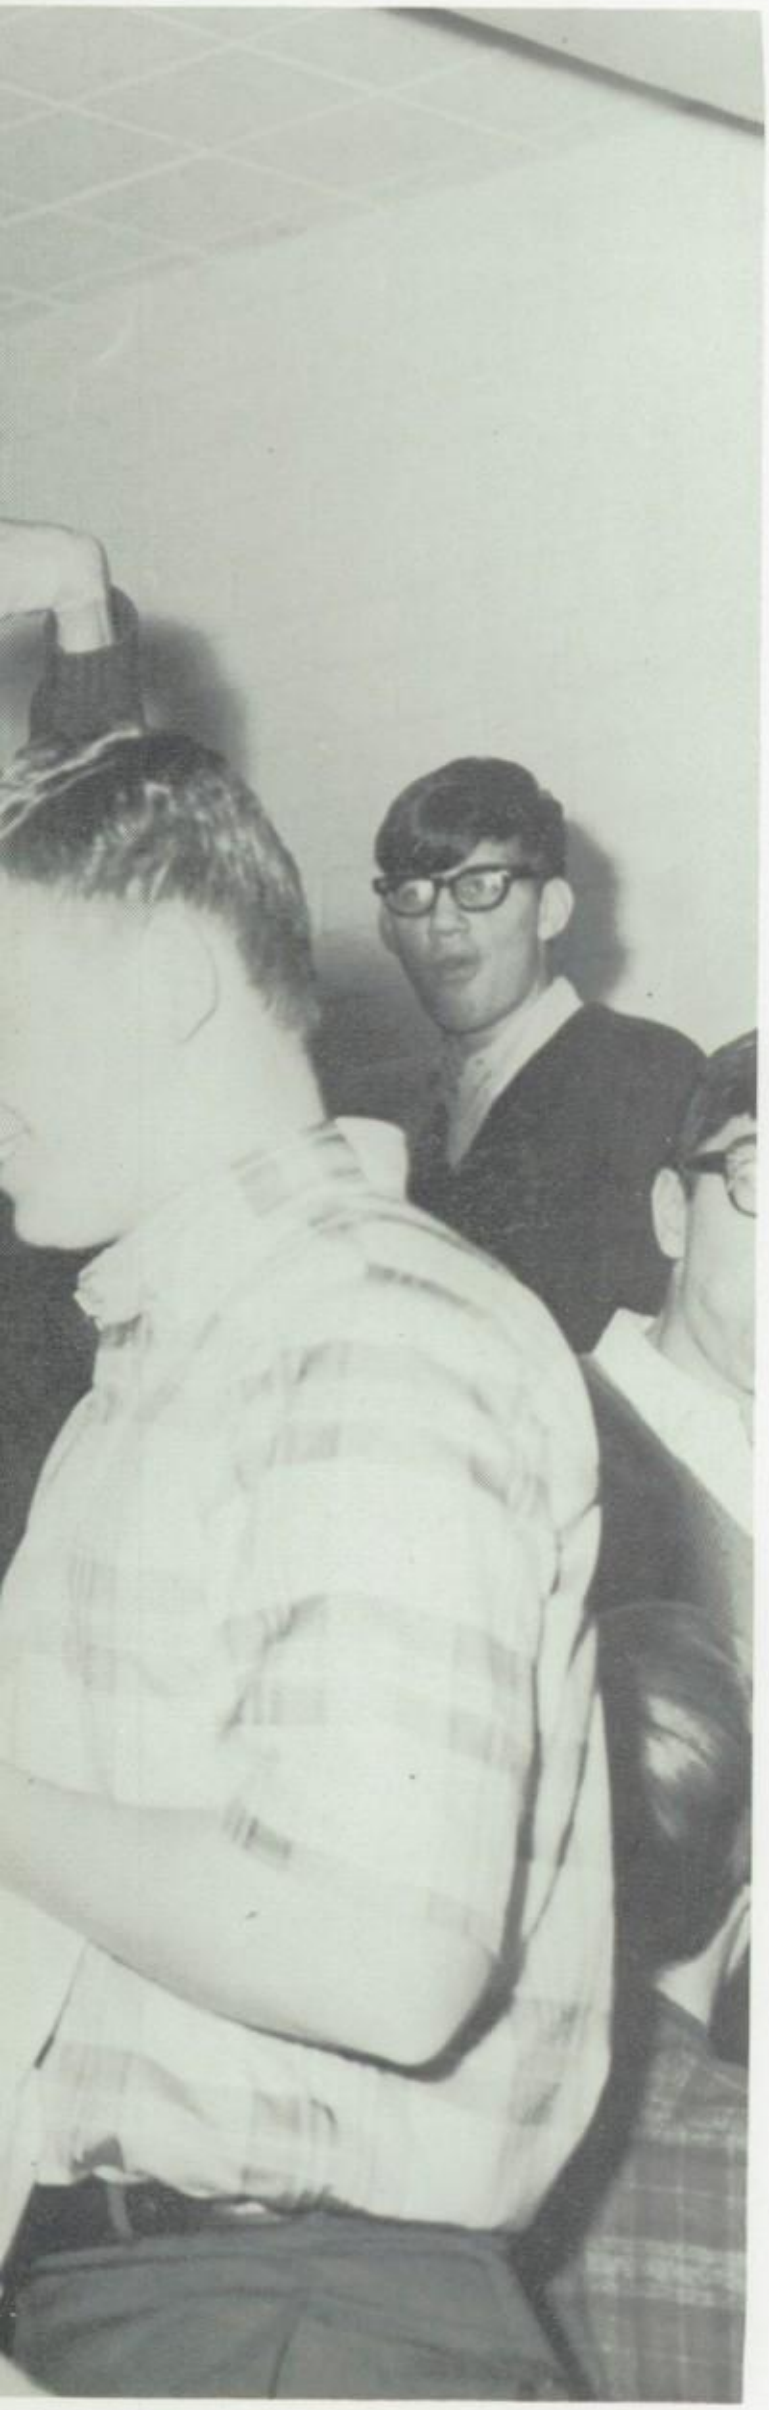
At school Father John Hurley is the treasurer--the stern figure at the pay window seeking tuition. On the road he is Father Gonzaga. He begs, he cajoles, he pleads, he cries with those who cry, he persuades, he sells, he laughs--all for the boys who go to Gonzaga Prep and for the fathers, scholastics, and brothers who stay behind to staff the school. They are engrained into his heart.

Father John has won hundreds to donate to Prep. He has traveled many miles, suffered many "No's", counseled many broken hearts, and he has gained for Prep a following enjoyed by no other school. His program is person to person: the Gonzaga Prep Associates and Fellows. These people pay for what your tuition cannot pay. They believe in him and in you. Their partnership with the school and with your education is due to one man alone: Father John. In mud, sleet, snow, fog, wind and sun he is out each day in search of new Associates and Fellows.

Father John is a Jesuit priest. His job is not easy. Often separated from his fellow priests, seldom seen by the students, scorned by the selfish who find his begging an intrusion, he is Gonzaga Prep's first citizen more than any other priest. Without him....? Well, let's not think about that, for God has sent him to us.

He could become hard, dealing always with debts, unpaid accounts, and cold figures of money. He could become discouraged, and no doubt he does have dark moments. But his cheerful face, his priestly zeal, his humble, self-effacing dedication to Gonzaga Prep, his constancy, courage, and Christ-likeness move us to dedicate this year's LUIGIAN to him.

God bless you, Father John--and thanks.



The leadership and spirit of this year's SENIORS has been exceptional. They have been taught well, and urged to think for themselves. Their originalty and imagination has added much to Gonzaga's spirit. The A of TISHSWCLPTATPOI, The Association of Those In Senior High School Who Carry Lunch Pails To Avoid The Pitfalls Of Insecurity, is no exception.

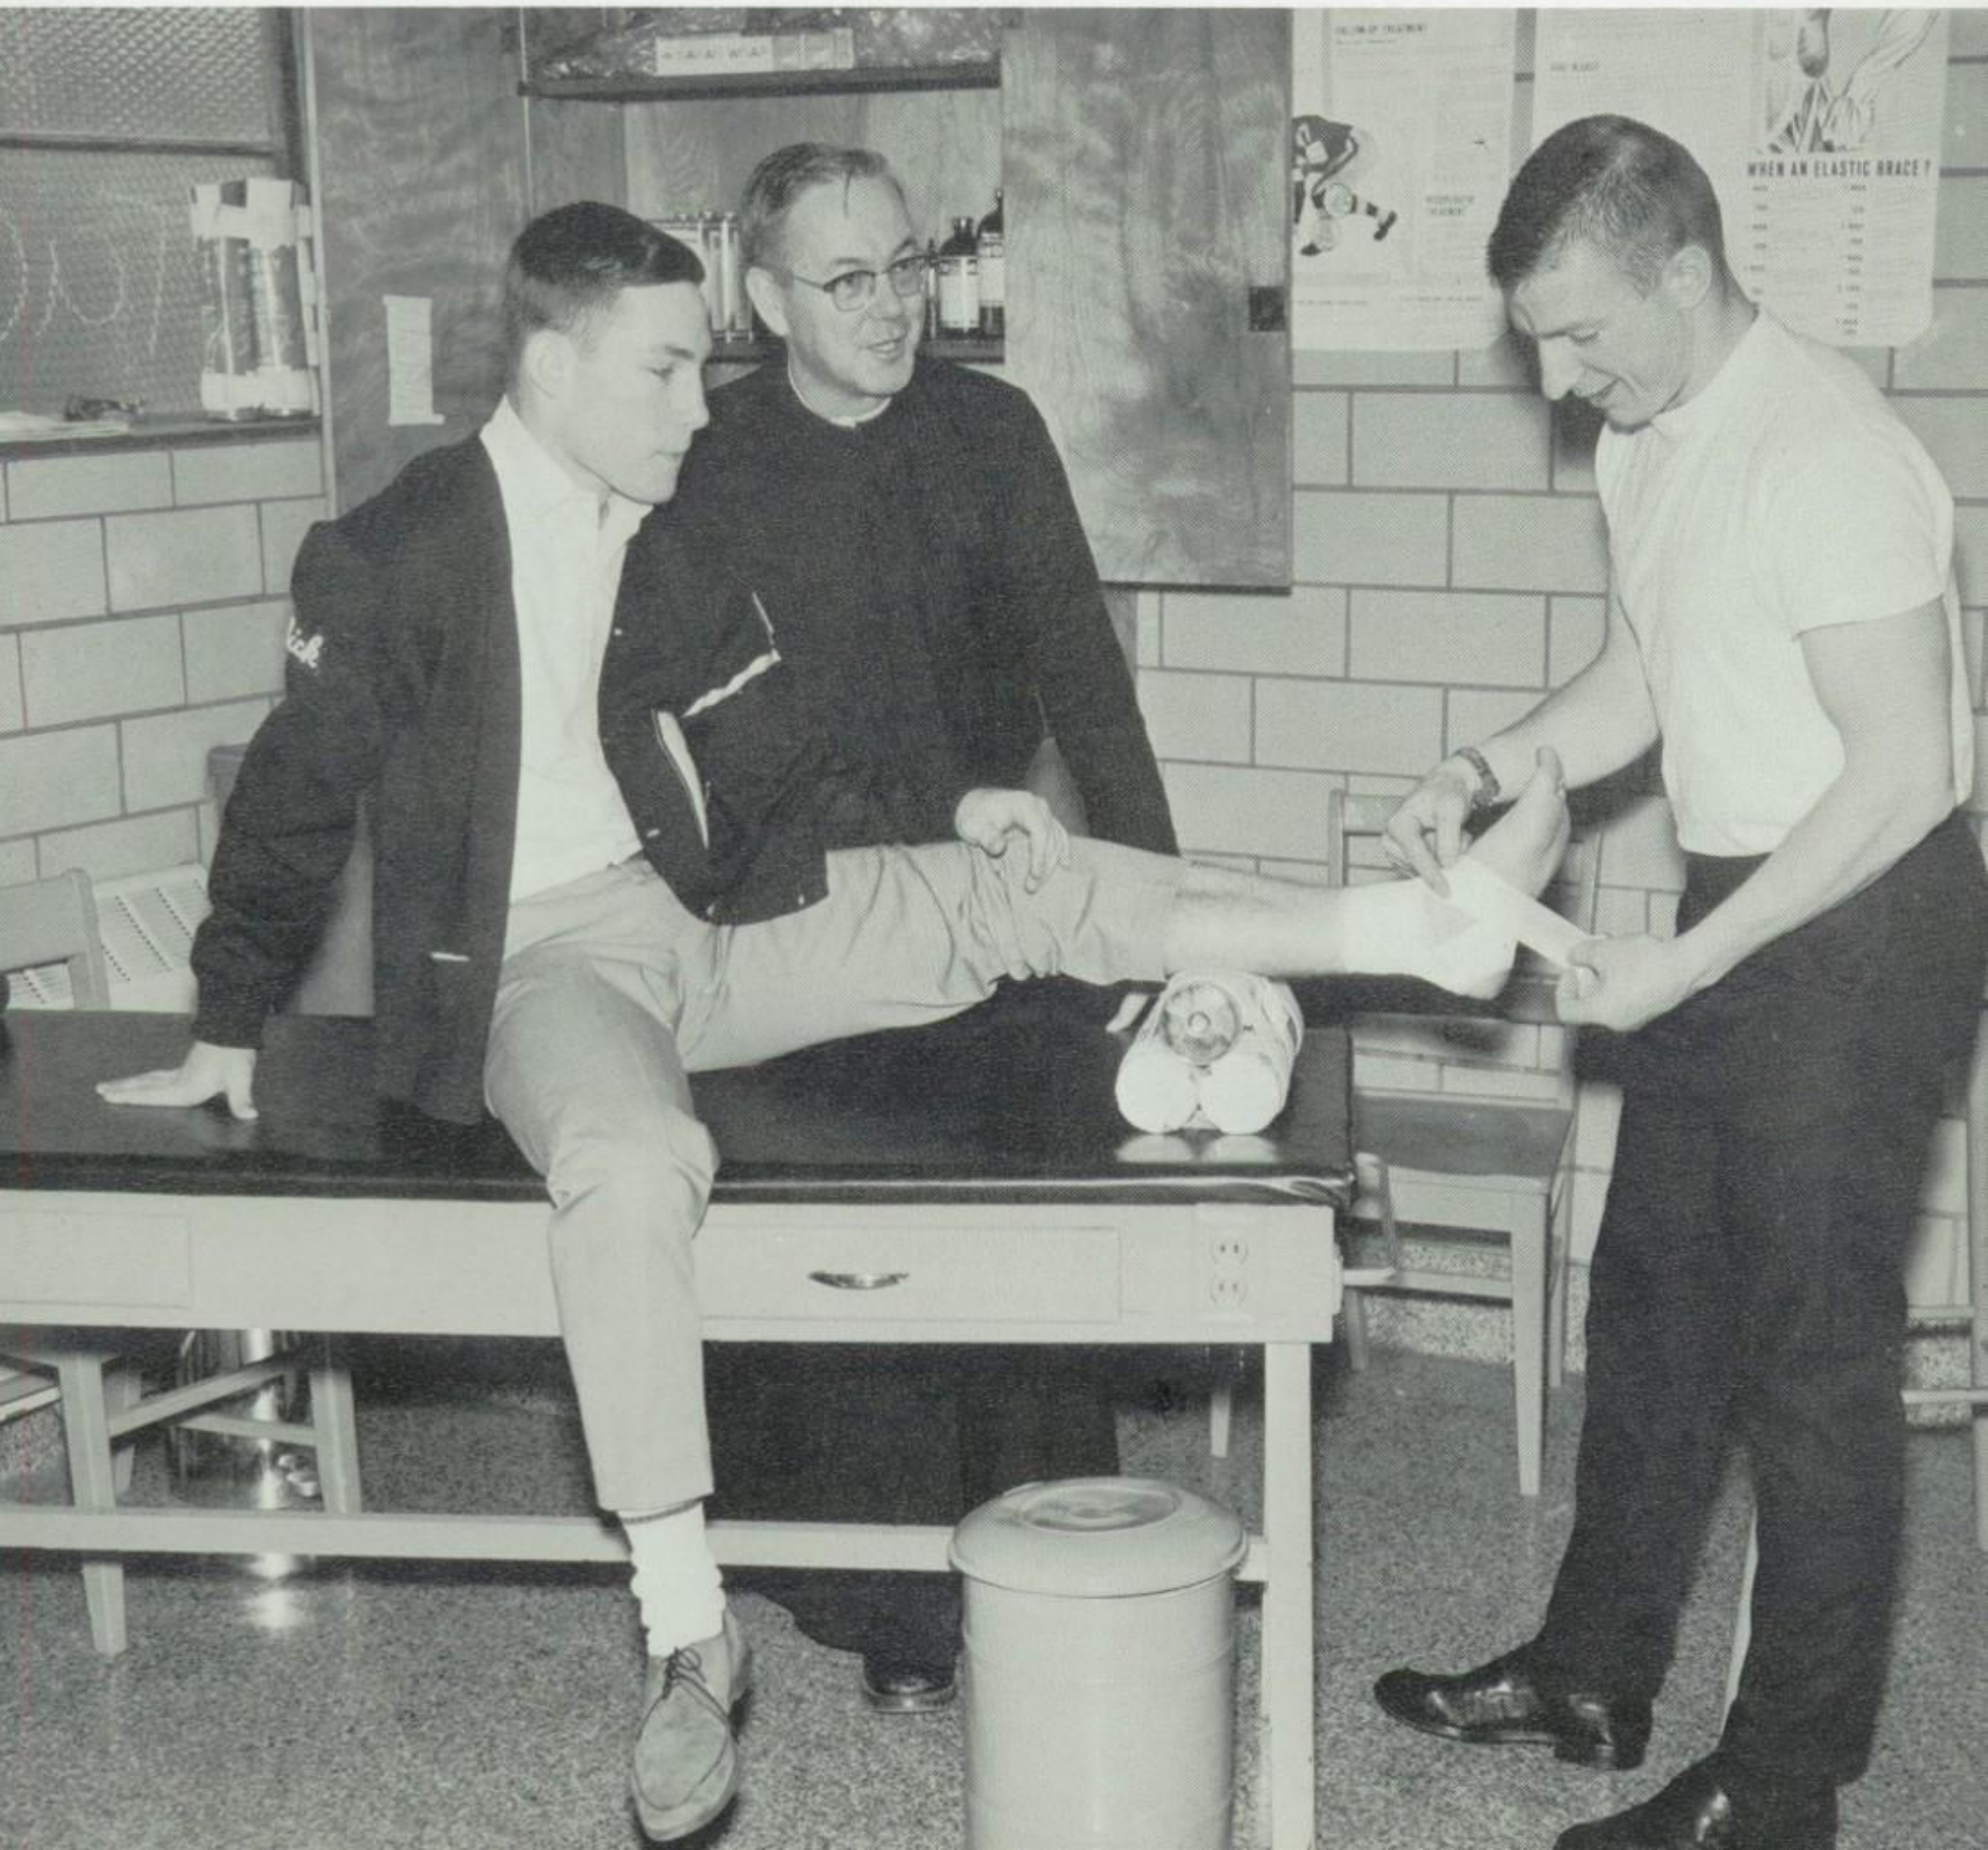
The librarian, Bro. John O'Brien and the P.E. instructor, Bro. Gerald Sullivan take time out to prepare Rick Pettigrew for another victorious football game.

These two Brothers have devoted many hours of their time helping students better themselves here at Prep both in academic and athletic fields.

Our sincere thanks to both, and our best wishes to Bro. Sullivan who is completing his fifth and final year at Prep.



Jim Canning, Sparky Powers, Dave Cullen, and Steve Maher standing tall, waiting for the blizzard to subside.

Outside of sports, there are many other extra curricular ACTIVITIES which add much to the spirit and tradition of Gonzaga. Gonzagans who are in the school activities do much that is beneficial and deserving of praise; Gonzaga is thankful for them and proud of them.

CONVENTION

Ever wonder why we have elections?

Eight seniors filed for President. They were Tom Breen, Bill Morin, John Rudolf, Dennis Shine, Rick Pettigrew, John Daly, Dennis Broderick, and Rick Skalstad. Rick Pettigrew and Rich Skalstad won the primary and in the final, Pettigrew was elected President.

Marc DeWood, Denny Rucker, Frank Yohannon, and Dick Mize comprized the list of primary candidates for vice-president. Denny Rucker won the runoff with the other primary winner, Marc DeWood.

Those filing for Secretary were Dave Cullen, Joe Shogan, and Dan Sander. Sander was chosen the new ASB Secretary in the final run-off. Batman also figured prominently in the voting.

Sign of the times

1966

Two Seniors, Jim Canning and Jim Kjeldsen, Junior Warren Riggers and Sophomore Rob Wert were the primary candidates for Treasurer. In the final election, Rob Wert edged Jim Canning, largely on the strength of a Senior write-in for Kjeldsen.

Jerry Baldasty, Jim Merriman, Terry Sirois, and Don Ressa vied in the primary for Frosh Counselor with Baldasty winning the final over Sirois.

Overall, this year's Convention was a little different from others in Prep's past. Jim Merriman pledged to eliminate his office if elected, while Jim Canning suggested that neither he nor his opponent would be too upset if he lost. At the close of the Convention, "Senators" Blaine and Morin moved that in the future, ASB officers would be chosen by the office.

FOOD DRIVE

Under the direction of Prep's Sodality, this year's FOOD DRIVE was the greatest success in Prep's history. 36,403 pounds of food was gathered for the needy families of Spokane. The previous record was 35,655 pounds in 1960. A total of $486 was donated by the generous students of Prep to buy Thanksgiving turkeys for deserving families.

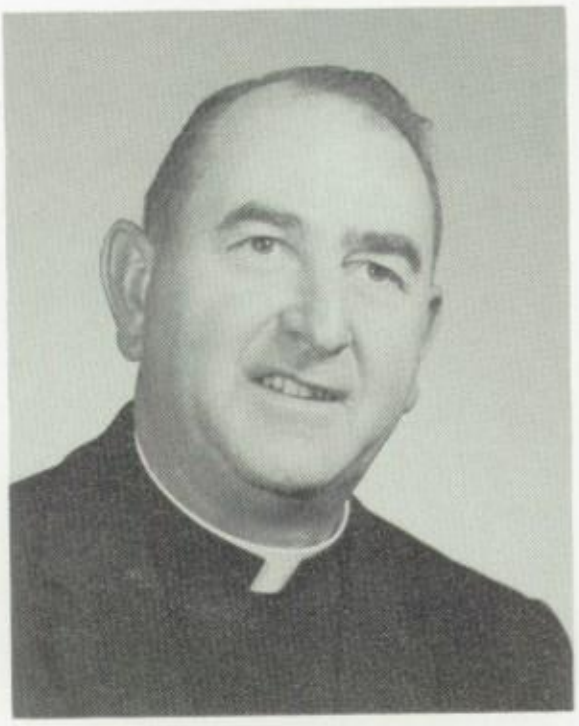
MERIT SEMIFINALISTS



Wilfred P. Schoenberg, S.J.

Scholars: Rick Pettigrew, Mike Oriard, Dick Mize.

The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test is taken each year in the spring by Prep's Juniors. Prior to the actual test, several months are spent in special preparation, called the Honors Program, under the direction of the Rev. Wilfred P. Schoenberg, S.J.

GALLERY OF GREAT MEN

During its fifth year here at Prep, the Gallery of Great Men and Women continued its growth under the direction of the Rev. Wilfred P. Schoenberg, S.J., who originated the collection in 1961.

Men and Women from all fields are represented in the collection, which includes Sir Edmund Hillary, Charles Shultz, Louis Satchmo Armstrong, Mickey Mantle, Jawaharlal Nehru, and Lyndon Johnson.

Among the new members this year are Arthur Schawlow, discoverer of the laser beam, Professor Choh Hao Li, hormone research specialist for the University of California at Berkeley, and Ed Sullivan.

DEBATE

This year, Prep's typically great Varsity debate team posted an all time high win-loss season record for the Spokane City Debate League. Led by Kevin Williams, Don Abel, Dick Mize, and Warren Riggers, the Varsity squad won 16 league debates while losing only two on the topic of compulsory arbitration of labor-management disputes in basic industries. Both losses were affirmative, one to Lewis and Clark and the other to second place Marycliff.

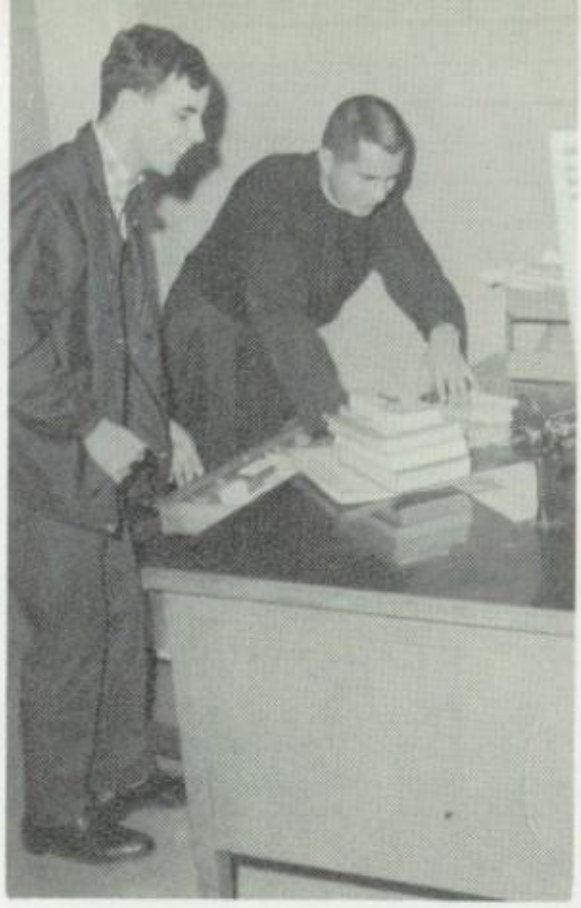
This year's Gonzagan distinguished itself from years past with the addition of several interesting features that pleased readers. Occasional controversial articles which heightened interest and promoted avid discussion of the paper throughout the school immediately upon distribution were also new.

Among the added features was a regular Athlete of the Month selection, the first going to basketball player Mike Schimmels.

Included among the more "controversial" articles were those appearing in a special eight page issue of the newspaper that covered the election results.



Mr. Antunez reviews some copy.

Honor Seminar

The 1965-66 session of Father Twohy's Honor Seminar operated with a smaller number of participants but all involved felt that discussion was carried through to a greater depth as a result.

Among the philosophical topics covered were Aristotle's Nichomachean Ethics and Politics, and Plato's Republic. Discussion also briefly involved other ideas of the Ancients.

The connection between the "good life" and the various kinds of social and political order men can devise was also thoroughly covered by the interested students.

RAINBOW

This year Gonzaga Prep's drama department, under the direction of Mr. Robert Jones, S.J., took a giant step forward. With the help of an enthusiastic and spirited turn-out, it was able to stage a magnificent production of the musical, FINIAN'S RAINBOW. Dozens of eager Prepsters showed up for the try-outs, vying with each other for the leads in the play, confidently and unashamedly displaying their talents. Marycliff High School and Holy Names Academy provided abundant talent for the female leads. In fact, there was so much talent that four girls took turns playing the two female leads. And, by their hard work and concentration during rehearsals, the girls set the pace for the Prepsters in the cast. The result was a performance of outstanding merit, another in the tradition of fine dramatics being built up at Gonzaga Prep.

The natural acting ability displayed by many of the underclassmen foretells great things for the future of drama at Gonzaga Prep. And the success of the performances of FINIAN'S RAINBOW indicates that there are students and directors interested in drama and willing to put in long, tedious hours blocking and talking, rehearsing and cursing, until a performance worthy of public presentation is ready.

The Gonzaga spirit has and always will be the greatest single factor of SPORTS in this city. It is fighting with bulldog determination, never giving up, even when it looks hopeless, and winning or losing with the grace and kindness of Christian gentlemen.

FOOTBALL

Prep's strong side moves out.

Prep's mascot!

The 1965 Gonzaga Bullpup football machine started the season off as it has in the past, winning. They remained undefeated and untied throughout the entire season of nine games.

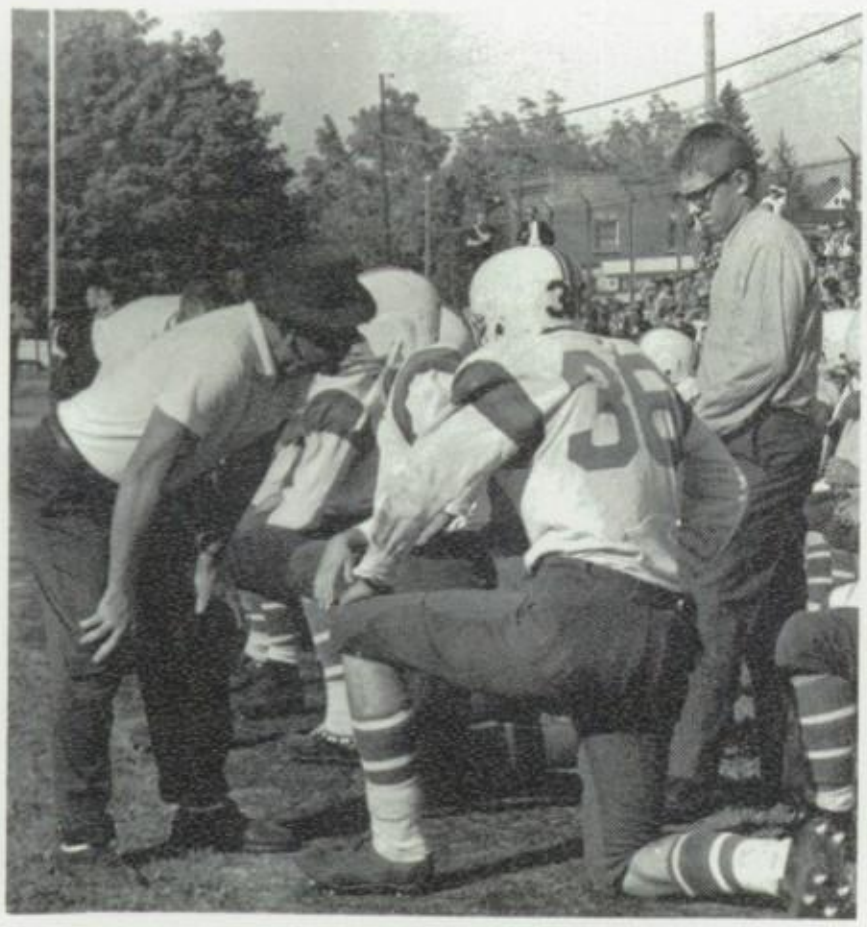
In the opener against Rogers, the Zags rolled to an impressive 46-14 win with Tim Hess moving the team to their first victory. This was a sign of things to come. It was a field day for comparatively new faces in the backfield. Dave Reil, Roger Felice, and Don Rosselet carried the ball for the majority of Gonzaga's yardage. They showed how explosive the Zags could be, at any time.

A tight defensive battle evolved in the second game with North Central. In a low scoring game the Gonzaga defense flexed its muscles, proving it as a deciding factor in later season games. The Zags won 27-7.

In the third game with Shadle Park, Gonzaga came as close to defeat as possible in a scoring battle that will long be remembered by Spokane sports fans. Two perfectly thrown passes by Q. B. Hess to Nick Scarpelli, who made spectacular catches on both, proved to be the winning factor, along with Reed (The Toe) Drexel, who kicked a field goal that proved to be the winning margin, 29-26.

Prep hardly had gotten their breath back, when on came the Tigers of L. C. With a hard running backfield, L. C. equaled each score by Gonzaga. But, finally the defense got hold of themselves, and stopped L. C. for a 28-20 victory.

Oriard snares pass for touchdown.



Coach Frazier gives Venie a pep talk.

Rosselet breaks another tackle.

Next came not-so-bad Ferris. Underdogs all season, they needed a big win. Tim Hess had himself another fine afternoon, proving himself to be a great quarterback in leading the explosive Pups to a 47-13 wallop.

By now the name of Gonzaga was creeping up the Top Ten in the State. The team seemed to understand this and thoroughly trounced Rogers for a second time, 44-6.

Perhaps the most important game of the season was next. It was with the only title contender, Shadle Park. They had been waiting for Prep ever since their first match. But Prep was also waiting for them. Defense was the key word for this game. On that great defensive effort were players like Leroy Allen, and Ralph Weir, who continually harassed Shadle runners. Mike Dempsey and Will Scott deserve most of the credit, however, as they held Jerry Hendren (all-city end) to very few pass receptions and they both got an interception off him. Drexel's consistant kicking again made the difference in the score which finally wound up 14-12.

Migaki follows G-Prep interference.

The second to the last game with N.C., clinched the city-title for the mighty Bullpups. It was featured by Don Rosselet turning in his best performance on a play that netted 86 yards. Another win: 21-0.

L.C. was the last obstacle to an unbeaten season. In the 1964 season, L.C.'s bid for a perfect season was destroyed by the Bullpups, now the tables were reversed, and L.C. had the chance to be the Spoiler. After three uneventful quarters, Tim Hess and the Zags exploded in the fourth quarter on a twenty-four point scoring spree that showed how good a Prep team could be. During most of this game, a tireless defense worked and worked as they had all year, not giving up a yard. A final win: 27-0.

The 1965 football team placed second in the State, a fine tribute to a fine coach, Bill Frazier.

Scarpelli decks a would-be runner.

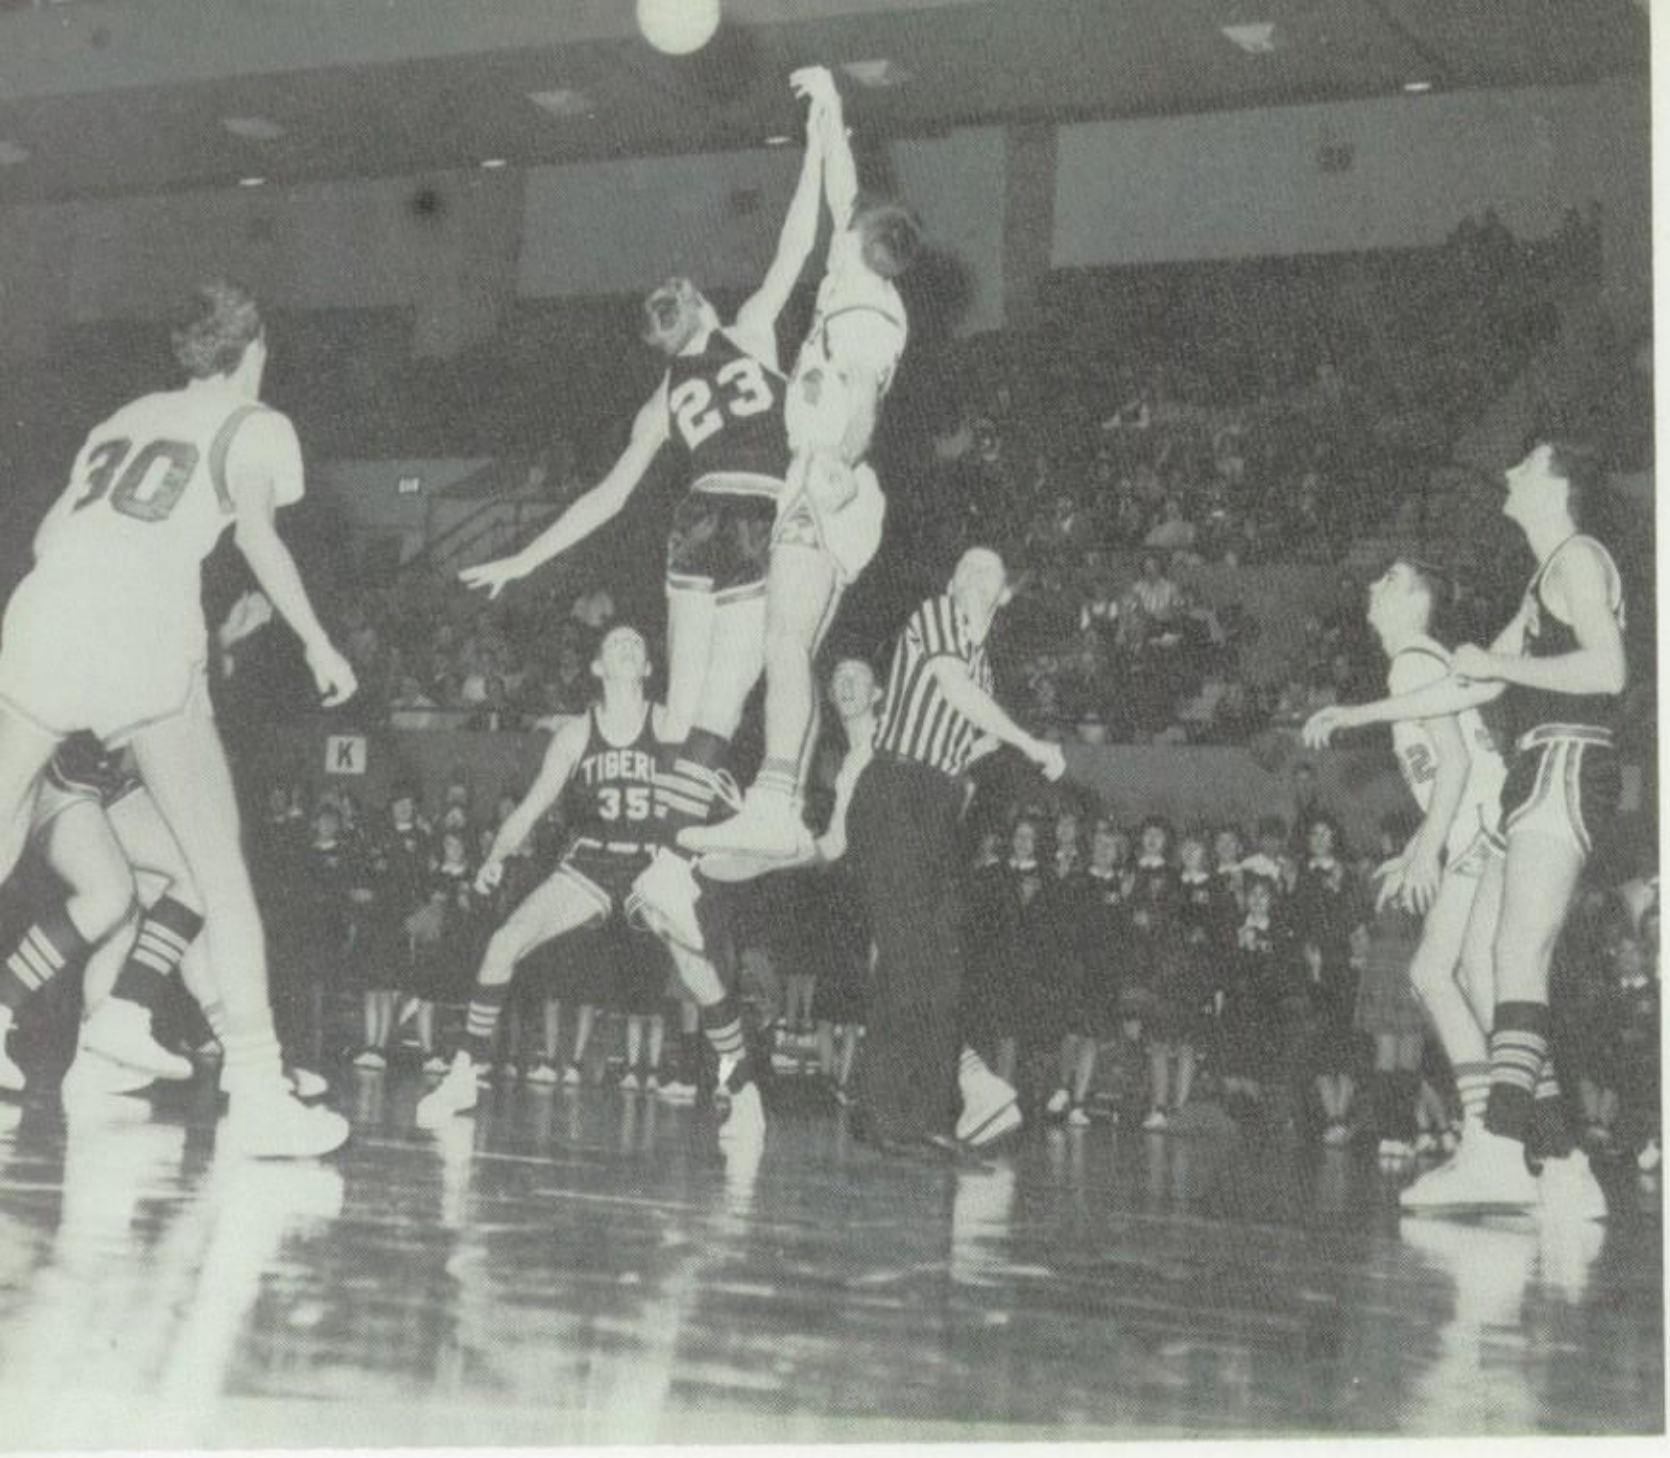
BASKETBALL

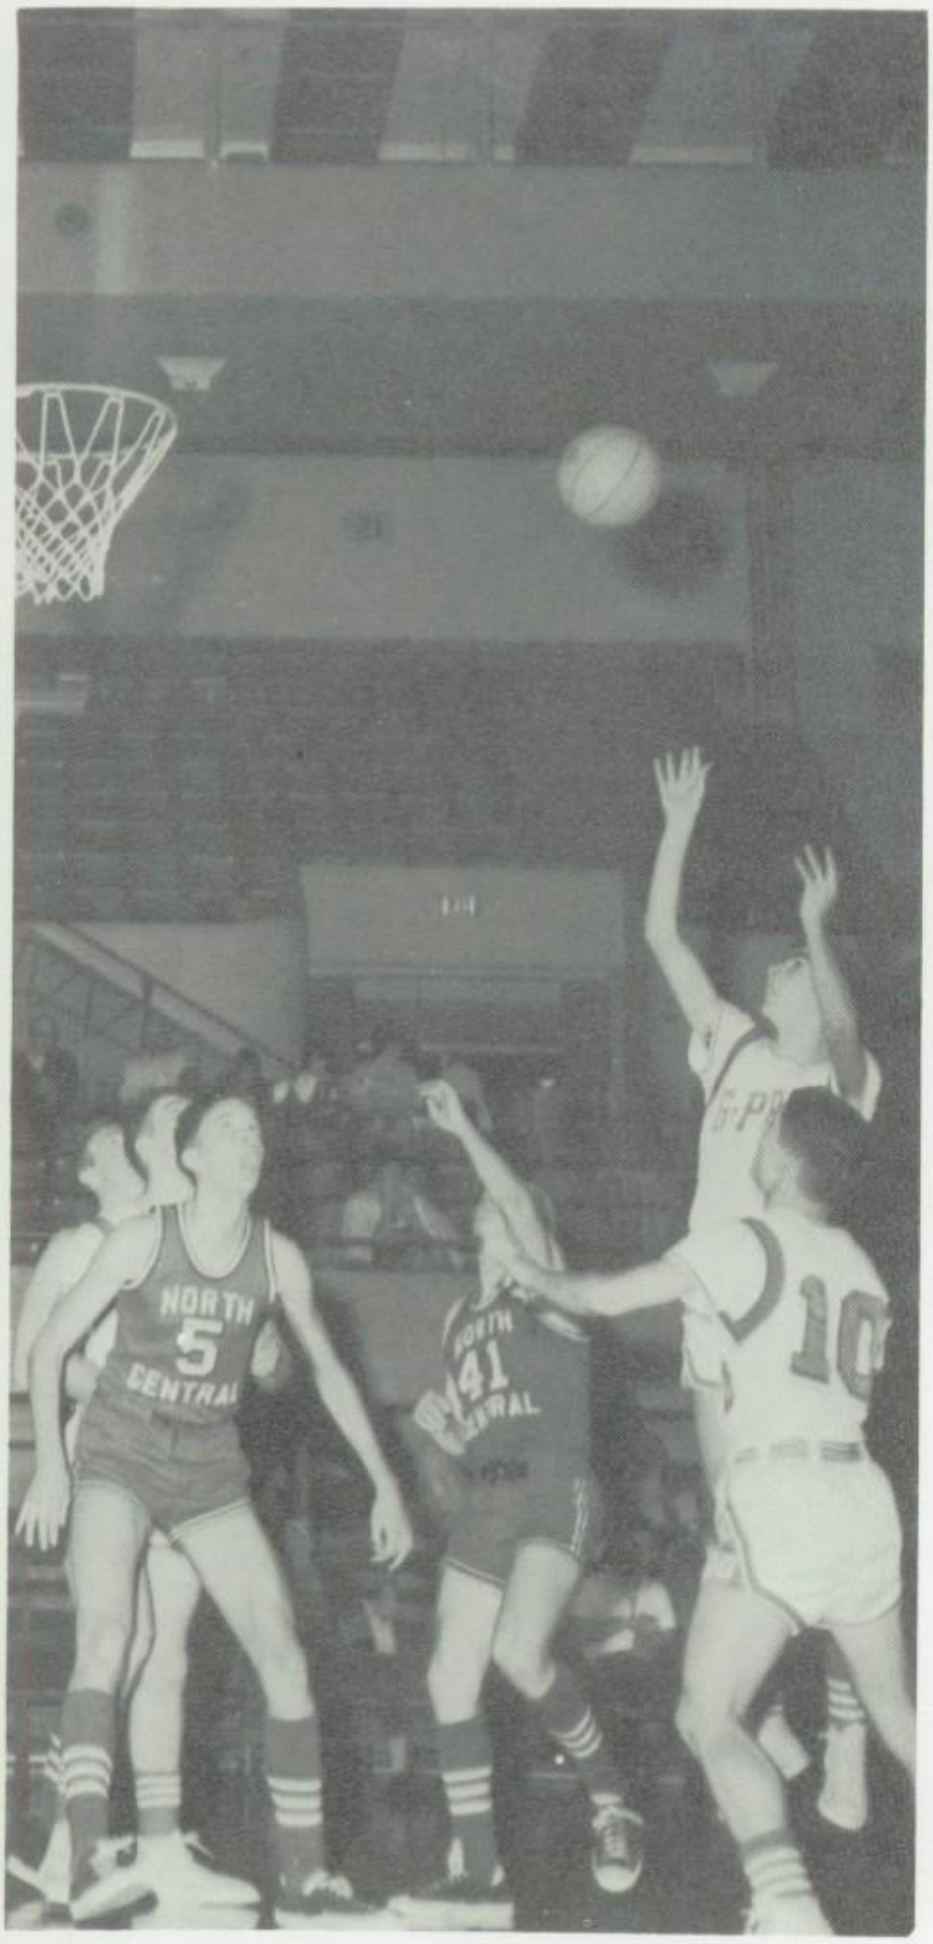


Corcoran soars to control tip.

Scarpelli outleaps defender.

The Gonzaga Prep basketball team opened the season on a winning note, by defeating Wallace and Post Falls. The following week-end urged on by their new coach Clark Irwin, the mighty Bullpups went up against University. Once unleashed, they dominated the court, and with a 54 to 39 victory, boosted their record to 5 and 0. The following week-end ended our winning streak, as the West Valley Eagles aced out the Pups 52-44.

The Bullpups entered the Christmas tourney and defeated N.C. 60-48, and Pullman 67-61. They booted their last game by a score of 54-49, and ended up third over all.



Pupo shoots while Scarpelli maneuvers into position.

On January 7th, following a very spirited pep rally, the Bullpups avenged their loss to Rogers by defeating them 67-40. Next, against Mead at West Valley a fine bit of ball handling and pressure shooting by Nick Scarpelli and Jim Corcoran put Prep into overtime with the Panthers. But overtime proved too much as Mead slipped in three quick points to win 65-62. The following two games C.V. and L.C. slithered by 50-32 and 71-55. Next, Prep stomped N.C. 69-50 with the help of Joe Pupo's superb shooting. The following week proved disastrous as Ferris overpowered Prep 54-52 with two seconds left.

Rated as underdogs the Bullpups took on Shadle Park. Sparked up by a pep rally, spirit day festivities, the (girl) cheerleaders, a skit, and a car bashing, the Bullpups led by Mike Schimmels and Tom Blaine, went out and snuck past Shadle 59-58 in overtime. Next, against Rogers, at the Kennedy Pavillon, the tables were turned as an overtime score, 56-54 indicated with Rogers on top. Next, taking on Mead, the Bullpups sought Panther blood and found it 62-53. They did this by shooting a torrid 53 per cent. In the final game of the season Prep was unable to outscore a blazing C. V. team and lost 70-57.

The Gonzaga spirit on the field of athletic competition has always been equaled by the spirit of the CLASSES in the stands. The other schools in the city are three times larger than we are, and their volume almost equals that of our long-winded student body.

COMPLIMENTS OF

THE FUTURE BELONGS TO YOU

To you, who have prepared for it.

To you, who look to its mysteries with eagerness rather than apprehension.

To you, who will master the challenge of the future, our hands are raised in salute.

The thousand men and women of The Washington Water Power Company, an organization that has also prepared for the future, extend to you their sincere best wishes.
